

Stateside Alumni hit the Trail

A group of our U.S. - based alumni and their friends recently took advantage of the clear Labor Day weekend weather, grabbing their hiking boots and hitting the Montebello Trail in Palo Alto, California.

Organiser Tristen Langley (B.Sc Hons '99 - pictured at right, foreground, left of frame) reports breathtaking scenery and great company on the 4 hour hike up Black Mountain (no mention of the blister count!).

On the Montebello trail in Palo Alto, CA.