Summary of the Course

The course provides upper intermediate level tuition in Japanese language study. Similar to the course 'Advanced Japanese A', a prerequisite for this course, you continue to develop your intercultural communication skills in an adult Japanese speaking environment while learning more about Japan and the Japanese. You also learn new Japanese structures, expressions, and vocabulary. In each topic, you learn the current socio-cultural issues in Japan. In vocabulary learning, you learn 200 kanji. They are taught through four social/cultural topics.

Course Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate communication and cultural skills in interaction with Japanese speakers.
2. Compare and evaluate a topic selected between Japan and Australia and explain it in Japanese.
3. Use knowledge of Japanese language and culture in a given context.
4. Collaborate with peers.

Teaching Strategies

Lectures deliver social and cultural issues related to the topic of the week. New structures/grammars are also explained. You participate in practices of new expressions, vocabularies, and Kanji and interact with fellow students at the lectures. Lectures are delivered using Japanese to assist you in developing their listening abilities and becoming familiar with native Japanese speakers' talk. The content which you are not able to comprehend in Japanese may be explained in English.

Tutorials provide you with opportunities to practice interaction, reading, and writing in Japanese following the information introduced during lectures and provided in the textbook. You'll develop understanding about the Japanese people, culture, and society. This is made through discussions on a topic of the course. Emphasis is also placed on developing interaction skills in an adult Japanese speaking environment. A medium of language in tutorials is Japanese in order to develop your oral and aural skills. You are strongly encouraged to use Japanese during classes.

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of others and presenting them as your own. It can take many forms, from deliberate cheating to accidentally copying from a source without acknowledgement.

UNSW groups plagiarism into the following categories:

Copying: using the same or very similar words to the original text or idea without acknowledging the source or using quotation marks. This also applies to images, art and design projects, as well as presentations where someone presents another's ideas or words without credit.

Inappropriate paraphrasing: Changing a few words and phrases while mostly retaining the original structure and/or progression of ideas of the original, and information without acknowledgement. This also applies in presentations where someone paraphrases another's ideas or words without credit and to piecing together quotes and paraphrases into a new whole, without appropriate referencing.

Collusion: working with others but passing off the work as a person's individual work. Collusion also includes providing your work to another student before the due date, or for the purpose of them plagiarising at any time, paying another person to perform an academic task, stealing or acquiring another person's academic work and copying it, offering to complete another person's work or seeking payment for completing academic work.

Inappropriate citation: Citing sources which have not been read, without acknowledging the "secondary" source from which knowledge of them has been obtained.

Duplication ("self-plagiarism"): submitting your own work, in whole or in part, where it has previously been prepared or submitted for another assessment or course at UNSW or another university.

Correct referencing practices:

- Paraphrasing, summarising, essay writing and time management
- Appropriate use of and attribution for a range of materials including text, images, formulae and concepts.

Individual assistance is available on request from The Learning Centre (<http://www.lc.unsw.edu.au/>). Students are also reminded that careful time management is an important part of study and one of the identified causes of plagiarism is poor time management. Students should allow sufficient time for research, drafting and proper referencing of sources in preparing all assessment items.

UNSW Library also has the ELISE tool available to assist you with your study at UNSW. ELISE is designed to introduce new students to studying at UNSW but it can also be a great refresher during your study.

Completing the ELISE tutorial and quiz will enable you to:

- analyse topics, plan responses and organise research for academic writing and other assessment tasks
- effectively and efficiently find appropriate information sources and evaluate relevance to your needs
- use and manage information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose
- better manage your time

- understand your rights and responsibilities as a student at UNSW
- be aware of plagiarism, copyright, UNSW Student Code of Conduct and Acceptable Use of UNSW ICT Resources Policy
- be aware of the standards of behaviour expected of everyone in the UNSW community
- locate services and information about UNSW and UNSW Library

Some of these areas will be familiar to you, others will be new. Gaining a solid understanding of all the related aspects of ELISE will help you make the most of your studies at UNSW.
