Summary of the Course

This advanced interpreting course prepares you for interpreting in international settings, including tourism, hospitality, and cultural fields, international relations and politics, media, business and sport. Building on your skills acquired during the introductory interpreting courses, you will enhance your consecutive and whispered simultaneous (chuchotage) interpreting skills, and will be prepared to interpret in complex events required in the media (e.g., interviews, Q & A) and during government and other international negotiations (e.g., official statements, round-table talks).

Course Learning Outcomes

1. identify and analyse different types and genres of complex discourse relevant to interpreting in international settings
2. explain the discourse of international settings in both languages
3. accurately interpret in the different modes of international settings
4. critically review research and professional literature and apply to practice
5. deploy public speaking skills relevant to interpreting in international settings
6. justify interpreting and ethical choices

Teaching Strategies

The course will combine theoretical and practical lectures and tutorials, to develop practical skills and sub-skills of consecutive interpreting with and without note taking, and will involve multilingual and language-specific tutorials, individual and group participation, student presentations and interpretation, and peer- and self-monitoring and assessment.

Assessment

Assessment Tasks

Assessment task	Weight	Due Date	Student Learning Outcomes Assessed
Mock conference	30%	16/11/2020 04:00 PM	1,3,5
Continuous assessment of interpreting skills	30%	Not Applicable	1,2,3,6
Portfolio	40%	30/11/2020 04:00 PM	1,2,4,6

Assessment Details

Assessment 1: Mock conference

Start date: 09/11/2020 04:00 PM

Details:

Students design semi-scripted role plays based on typical scenarios of international settings. They are assessed on the quality of their scenarios and their presentation where they act as both speakers and interpreters.

Feedback includes peer-review by lecturer and tutors, and fellow-students at the time of the presentation, and written feedback by lecturer.

Additional details:

Each student has to submit a video recording where he or she will act as an interpreter in a scenario (for example, speech, business meeting, media interview, discussion etc.). In this scenario you will act as an interpreter while the other student or students, who will be the author(s) of the scenario, will act as a speaker or speakers. You will also act as an author of a different scenario where you will act as a speaker for another student or students; your presentation as an author and speaker in this second scenario will also be assessed.

Please do the following:

(a) submit the video recording where you act as an interpreter; you don't have to attach a script of this scenario and

(b) indicate in which student's video you are acting as the the author and a speaker; please attach your script of this scenario whose author you are and where you act as a speaker. You don't have to submit the video where you act as a speaker, only the script that you have written.

Turnitin setting: This is not a Turnitin assignment

Assessment 2: Continuous assessment of interpreting skills

Start date: Not Applicable

Details:

In class assessment of the students bi-directional interpreting skills (consecutive and whispered simultaneous).

You will receive informal feedback from your peers and tutor, based on your ongoing performance and progress in class. You will receive formal written feedback twice.

Turnitin setting: This is not a Turnitin assignment

Assessment 3: Portfolio

Start date: 23/11/2020 04:00 PM

Details:

Portfolio consists of transcribed interviews and speeches relevant to interpreting in international settings, bilingual glossary/word bank development, and a final essay (500 words).

Submit in Turnitin, individual written feedback. A mark will be awarded for the whole portfolio at the end of the semester.

Additional details:

Content and Length :

1. Select six video recordings of excerpts of speeches or interviews relevant to international settings (three recordings in LOTE and three in English).
2. Transcribe each recording in its source language (approximately 250-300 words each) and provide your own translations in the target language.
3. Compile a bilingual glossary of each recording. You can either submit one large combined glossary or include a series of shorter glossaries after each transcription and translation.
4. Write a summary essay of 500-750 words analysing the discourse of the original recording: state the time, place, speaker and the occasion and purpose of the speech or an interview; indicate the text type, describe speaker's style), explain translation challenges and solutions you have proposed to overcome them.

Details: You will be asked to examine and analyse the discourse of international events (meetings, negotiations) on a weekly basis in the context of the relevant academic and/or professional literature and resources. This includes: locating and transcribing video recordings of international meetings and other events, analysing the style, register and language, and developing an understanding of what constitutes different types of international political and diplomatic discourse; finding equivalents in your other language; providing a summary essay (500-750 words) outlining the main features of this discourse in both languages and its application for interpreting in international settings. A mark will be awarded for the whole portfolio at the end of the semester. This is the final assessment for attendance purposes.

Attendance Requirements

Students are strongly encouraged to attend all classes and review lecture recordings.

Course Evaluation and Development

This course has been receiving consistent high evaluations, above School and Faculty average, with a 100% agreement.

This year changes consisted of the course adapted to being delivered fully online. No content or activities have been compromised as a result.

Submission of Assessment Tasks

Turnitin Submission

If you encounter a problem when attempting to submit your assignment through Turnitin, please telephone External Support on 9385 3331 or email them on externalteltsupport@unsw.edu.au. Support hours are 8:00am – 10:00pm on weekdays and 9:00am – 5:00pm on weekends (365 days a year). If you are unable to submit your assignment due to a fault with Turnitin you may apply for an extension, but you must retain your ticket number from External Support (along with any other relevant documents) to include as evidence to support your extension application. If you email External Support you will automatically receive a ticket number, but if you telephone you will need to specifically ask for one. Turnitin also provides updates on their system status on Twitter.

Generally, assessment tasks must be submitted electronically via either Turnitin or a Moodle assignment. In instances where this is not possible, it will be stated on your course's Moodle site with alternative submission details.

For information on how to submit assignments online via Moodle: <https://student.unsw.edu.au/how-submit-assignment-moodle>

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of others and presenting them as your own. It can take many forms, from deliberate cheating to accidentally copying from a source without acknowledgement.

UNSW groups plagiarism into the following categories:

Copying: using the same or very similar words to the original text or idea without acknowledging the source or using quotation marks. This also applies to images, art and design projects, as well as presentations where someone presents another's ideas or words without credit.

Inappropriate paraphrasing: Changing a few words and phrases while mostly retaining the original structure and/or progression of ideas of the original, and information without acknowledgement. This also applies in presentations where someone paraphrases another's ideas or words without credit and to piecing together quotes and paraphrases into a new whole, without appropriate referencing.

Collusion: working with others but passing off the work as a person's individual work. Collusion also includes providing your work to another student before the due date, or for the purpose of them plagiarising at any time, paying another person to perform an academic task, stealing or acquiring another person's academic work and copying it, offering to complete another person's work or seeking payment for completing academic work.

Inappropriate citation: Citing sources which have not been read, without acknowledging the "secondary" source from which knowledge of them has been obtained.

Duplication ("self-plagiarism"): submitting your own work, in whole or in part, where it has previously been prepared or submitted for another assessment or course at UNSW or another university.

Correct referencing practices:

- Paraphrasing, summarising, essay writing and time management
- Appropriate use of and attribution for a range of materials including text, images, formulae and concepts.

Individual assistance is available on request from The Learning Centre (<http://www.lc.unsw.edu.au/>). Students are also reminded that careful time management is an important part of study and one of the identified causes of plagiarism is poor time management. Students should allow sufficient time for research, drafting and proper referencing of sources in preparing all assessment items.

UNSW Library also has the ELISE tool available to assist you with your study at UNSW. ELISE is designed to introduce new students to studying at UNSW but it can also be a great refresher during your study.

Completing the ELISE tutorial and quiz will enable you to:

- analyse topics, plan responses and organise research for academic writing and other assessment tasks
- effectively and efficiently find appropriate information sources and evaluate relevance to your needs
- use and manage information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose
- better manage your time

- understand your rights and responsibilities as a student at UNSW
- be aware of plagiarism, copyright, UNSW Student Code of Conduct and Acceptable Use of UNSW ICT Resources Policy
- be aware of the standards of behaviour expected of everyone in the UNSW community
- locate services and information about UNSW and UNSW Library

Some of these areas will be familiar to you, others will be new. Gaining a solid understanding of all the related aspects of ELISE will help you make the most of your studies at UNSW.
