Summary of the Course

This course is for background speakers at the Intermediate Level. It is open to students who have grown up in a family or environment where Mandarin or any Chinese dialects have been used in daily situations. It requires a reasonable level of spoken Chinese and a working knowledge of no less than 750 characters. In this course, you will improve your Chinese skills in the areas of speaking, listening, reading, and writing, and will make significant gains in the acquisition of vocabulary and grammar. You will also be introduced to the social, cultural and historical knowledge that are related to the topics in the textbook. In addition to daily discourse and abstract ideas, topics that require critical thinking and higher language integration are woven into this level of language study.

Course Learning Outcomes

1. Understand a wide range of texts from various sources and on a variety of topics
2. Compose short essays in Chinese on a given topic
3. Acquire communication skills, and identify communication styles in Chinese
4. Demonstrate intermediate-level knowledge of linguistic behaviour, society and culture in Chinese-speaking world

Teaching Strategies

This language course requires students to attend lectures and tutorials. The lectures cover new vocabulary, text, grammatical structure, and social, cultural and historical awareness in the Chinese context. The tutorials target workbook exercises and provide opportunities for students to speak Chinese and address any reading or writing issues. Students are also required to spend a minimum of 5 hours per week studying outside of the class in order to achieve a satisfactory learning outcome.

All four language skills will be enhanced and assessed throughout the course using structural and interactive methods. Each lesson will start with vocabulary and structural practices followed by task-based activities. A substantial amount of class will be conducted in Chinese, while English will be used to clarify issues only when it becomes necessary. Assessments require students to demonstrate a solid comprehension and optimal use of contents covered in the textbook rather than repeating rudimentary knowledge acquired by rote.

Assessment

Detailed instructions on all assessment tasks are available on Moodle. The use of electronic devices (e.g. laptops, mobile phones, iPads or tablets, pagers, etc.) is prohibited during all assessments involving writing characters unless stated otherwise.

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of others and presenting them as your own. It can take many forms, from deliberate cheating to accidentally copying from a source without acknowledgement.

UNSW groups plagiarism into the following categories:

Copying: using the same or very similar words to the original text or idea without acknowledging the source or using quotation marks. This also applies to images, art and design projects, as well as presentations where someone presents another's ideas or words without credit.

Inappropriate paraphrasing: Changing a few words and phrases while mostly retaining the original structure and/or progression of ideas of the original, and information without acknowledgement. This also applies in presentations where someone paraphrases another's ideas or words without credit and to piecing together quotes and paraphrases into a new whole, without appropriate referencing.

Collusion: working with others but passing off the work as a person's individual work. Collusion also includes providing your work to another student before the due date, or for the purpose of them plagiarising at any time, paying another person to perform an academic task, stealing or acquiring another person's academic work and copying it, offering to complete another person's work or seeking payment for completing academic work.

Inappropriate citation: Citing sources which have not been read, without acknowledging the "secondary" source from which knowledge of them has been obtained.

Duplication ("self-plagiarism"): submitting your own work, in whole or in part, where it has previously been prepared or submitted for another assessment or course at UNSW or another university.

Correct referencing practices:

- Paraphrasing, summarising, essay writing and time management
- Appropriate use of and attribution for a range of materials including text, images, formulae and concepts.

Individual assistance is available on request from The Learning Centre (<http://www.lc.unsw.edu.au/>). Students are also reminded that careful time management is an important part of study and one of the identified causes of plagiarism is poor time management. Students should allow sufficient time for research, drafting and proper referencing of sources in preparing all assessment items.

UNSW Library also has the ELISE tool available to assist you with your study at UNSW. ELISE is designed to introduce new students to studying at UNSW but it can also be a great refresher during your study.

Completing the ELISE tutorial and quiz will enable you to:

- analyse topics, plan responses and organise research for academic writing and other assessment tasks
- effectively and efficiently find appropriate information sources and evaluate relevance to your needs
- use and manage information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose
- better manage your time

- understand your rights and responsibilities as a student at UNSW
- be aware of plagiarism, copyright, UNSW Student Code of Conduct and Acceptable Use of UNSW ICT Resources Policy
- be aware of the standards of behaviour expected of everyone in the UNSW community
- locate services and information about UNSW and UNSW Library

Some of these areas will be familiar to you, others will be new. Gaining a solid understanding of all the related aspects of ELISE will help you make the most of your studies at UNSW.
