Summary of the Course

Subject Area: Music Performance, Music Ensemble

In this practical course, you will develop your advanced instrumental, vocal or composition skills with one-to-one support from a specialist tutor, and gain experience in applying those skills through participation in workshops, masterclasses and ensembles. These components will combine to support your specialist strengths and interests, and to broaden and contextualise your personal studies. Milestones for the course are technical foundations, for both performers and composers, and healthy practice, as the basis of optimal performance and sustainable music-making.

Note: This is a 12 UOC course. You will enrol in 4 UOC in each of three successive terms with a result reported by a single grade at the end of the third 4 UOC course.

Course Learning Outcomes

1. Build and apply foundational technical skills in the development of artistic expression
2. Apply the principles of healthy professional practice to vocal and instrumental technique and performance
3. Identify relationships among issues informing performance practice
4. Apply principles of teamwork to music ensemble

Teaching Strategies

Students' personal skills in performance or composition will be developed through 1-1 consultations with specialist tutors [8 x 1 hour each trimester]. In workshops [9 x 1.5 hours each trimester], instrumental and vocal students will gain performance experience, while composition students will become familiar with issues affecting performance and performance preparation. Workshop settings will also support engagement with issues concerning musicians' health and wellbeing, the development of stage conduct, and an element of peer observation for specialist performance and composition groups. Students will attend masterclasses led by visiting experts in a range of musical instruments, voices and styles, encouraging students to draw links and comparisons with their personal studies [choosing 4 x 2 hours from nine masterclasses across the year]. All students will participate in directed ensembles, choosing from a wide range of musical styles and cultures [8 x 2 hours each trimester].

Assessment

Assessment Details

Assessment 1: Ensemble contribution, performances, part checking test

Start date: Not Applicable

Details: Direct feedback during rehearsals and workshops and a formal report at the conclusion of the session. Students' contribution to ensemble performances and workshops will be assessed through a part-checking examination. Ensemble part-checking will be undertaken in T1, T2 and T3. Individually or in small groups, students will perform works or excerpts of works, studied and performed during the trimester. Where appropriate, excerpts will be selected by the part-checking examiner.

Assessment 2: Masterclass critiques

Start date: Not Applicable

Length: 500 words

Details: Critiques will be submitted across T1, T2 and T3. These will be related to masterclasses presented by visiting experts in a range of musical styles and activities. Critique questions will be scaffolded to encourage students to identify issues for discussion, and to draw links among performance elements and scholarly literature.

Additional details:

Students must attend a minimum of 1 masterclass in Term 2 and submit 1 masterclass critique in Week 10 of Term 2.

Submission notes: via Moodle portal

Turnitin setting: This is not a Turnitin assignment

Assessment 3: Performance/presentation

Start date: Not Applicable

Length: 10 minutes

Details: Performance/presentations will be conducted during workshop sessions in T1 and T2. Instrumentalists and vocalists will perform one complete item in each term, which may be a movement of a larger work; composers, similarly, will present the performance of one item or movement. Feedback: written reports

Additional details:

The 10 minute assessed performances presented in Term 2 can not include the repertoire presented in Term 1.

Assessment 4: Practical examination

Start date: Not Applicable

Details: For performance students, examinations will be undertaken in T3. Students will present a 20-minute programme devised in negotiation with their specialist tutors, to suit their personal interests and trajectories. Students identifying as jazz specialists will present technical work from the jazz syllabus devised for this course. The examination will also include a short sight-reading test for all students. This will be the final assessment task for performers. For composition students, portfolios will be submitted in T3. Portfolios may include any number of works, but the total duration of works should be 15 minutes. Scores should be submitted, along with recordings of all works. This will be the final assessment task for composers. Feedback: Written report on practical exam and composition portfolio.

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of others and presenting them as your own. It can take many forms, from deliberate cheating to accidentally copying from a source without acknowledgement.

UNSW groups plagiarism into the following categories:

Copying: using the same or very similar words to the original text or idea without acknowledging the source or using quotation marks. This also applies to images, art and design projects, as well as presentations where someone presents another's ideas or words without credit.

Inappropriate paraphrasing: Changing a few words and phrases while mostly retaining the original structure and/or progression of ideas of the original, and information without acknowledgement. This also applies in presentations where someone paraphrases another's ideas or words without credit and to piecing together quotes and paraphrases into a new whole, without appropriate referencing.

Collusion: working with others but passing off the work as a person's individual work. Collusion also includes providing your work to another student before the due date, or for the purpose of them plagiarising at any time, paying another person to perform an academic task, stealing or acquiring another person's academic work and copying it, offering to complete another person's work or seeking payment for completing academic work.

Inappropriate citation: Citing sources which have not been read, without acknowledging the "secondary" source from which knowledge of them has been obtained.

Duplication ("self-plagiarism"): submitting your own work, in whole or in part, where it has previously been prepared or submitted for another assessment or course at UNSW or another university.

Correct referencing practices:

- Paraphrasing, summarising, essay writing and time management
- Appropriate use of and attribution for a range of materials including text, images, formulae and concepts.

Individual assistance is available on request from The Learning Centre (<http://www.lc.unsw.edu.au/>). Students are also reminded that careful time management is an important part of study and one of the identified causes of plagiarism is poor time management. Students should allow sufficient time for research, drafting and proper referencing of sources in preparing all assessment items.

UNSW Library also has the ELISE tool available to assist you with your study at UNSW. ELISE is designed to introduce new students to studying at UNSW but it can also be a great refresher during your study.

Completing the ELISE tutorial and quiz will enable you to:

- analyse topics, plan responses and organise research for academic writing and other assessment tasks
- effectively and efficiently find appropriate information sources and evaluate relevance to your needs
- use and manage information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose
- better manage your time

- understand your rights and responsibilities as a student at UNSW
- be aware of plagiarism, copyright, UNSW Student Code of Conduct and Acceptable Use of UNSW ICT Resources Policy
- be aware of the standards of behaviour expected of everyone in the UNSW community
- locate services and information about UNSW and UNSW Library

Some of these areas will be familiar to you, others will be new. Gaining a solid understanding of all the related aspects of ELISE will help you make the most of your studies at UNSW.
