

UNSW JUSTICE INCLUSION ACCESS (JEINA)

JEINA Entrepreneur's Hub - Supporting Women from Forced Migration Backgrounds to Lead Through Innovation and Enterprise Development.

Women from forced migration backgrounds in Australia face systemic barriers, limiting education, employment, and leadership due to discrimination and exclusion.

UNSW's JEINA program is launching a dynamic series of initiatives designed to tackle these challenges through innovative entrepreneurship opportunities.

The JEINA Ignite Grant

Building Strength, Inspiring Leadership, Driving Change

JEINA Ignite, in partnership with UNSW Founders New Wave, empowers women from forced migration backgrounds through workshops, coaching, and mentorship—supporting UNSW students, staff, and alumni to launch impactful ventures.

What the Grant Offers

Funding Support

$5,000 to kickstart or grow an early-stage business or social impact project.

Inclusive Access

Inclusive application process valuing lived experience and removing barriers.

Leadership and Visibility

Supporting women driving impact, integration, and leadership through their work.

Community and Change

Showcase your project, share knowledge, and advocate inclusive entrepreneurship.

How to apply

Scan QR code to submit Expression of Interest.

Contact: jeina@unsw.edu.au

