

Pathways to Psychology

Bachelors (Integrated Honours)
 Bachelor of Psychology (Honours) – 3632
 Bachelor of Advanced Science (Honours) (Psychology) - 3962

Bachelors
 Bachelor of Psychological Science – 3435
 Bachelor of Science (Psychology) – 3970
 Bachelor of Science and Business (Psychology) – 3925
 Bachelor of Life Sciences (Psychology) – 3966
 Bachelor of Science (International) (Psychology) – 3987*
*this course is 4 years, but does not include Honours

Honours
 Bachelor of Psychological Science (Honours) - 4518

Graduate Diploma
 Graduate Diploma of Psychology – 5331*
*This 2 year postgraduate program provides students with an accredited psychology sequence that can be used to meet the entry requirements for Honours.

Other
Bachelors
Degree

Workforce
 After any of these programs you will be equipped with the skills to enter the workforce, however you cannot practice as a registered psychologist until you achieve your General Registration.

Academic Pathway
 Master of Psychology (Clinical) – 8256
 Master of Psychology (Forensic) – 8257
 Combined PhD / Master of Psychology (Clinical) – 1404
 Combined PhD / Master of Psychology (Forensic) – 1405

Internship Pathway

General Registration
 You are now able to practice as a registered psychologist. If you completed the Academic pathway, you also have the option to complete the relevant registrar program and earn your Area of Practice Endorsement.

Provisional Registration

3 years

4 years

6 years