<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Undergraduate Direct Entry Table</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>This table is a guide only and actual entry requirements may be higher or lower than those indicated. In all cases, admission will be determined upon the receipt of an application. The university reserves the right to vary entry requirements to those published without further notice. For further explanations of this table refer to the key on the next page.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Direct entry table key and notes

Entry guide key

- 1 = A2 Level, 2 = 3 Advanced Level (A2) subjects + 2 content-based subjects, 3 = 3 Advanced Level (A2) subjects + 1 content-based subject.
- 6 = First 3 years of Bachelor, 7 = Second 3 years of Bachelor, 8 = Final year of Bachelor.
- * denotes English as a second language (ESL) applicants.

Program information

- Study information indicates online programs.
- Eligibility: Entry is based on the total of a minimum of 10 points. Qualification requirements vary depending on your country of origin.
- Indicate the total points for all Category A subjects in the country of study. The remaining points should be from Category B subjects.

Commonly Accepted Secondary Qualifications

The Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) processes undergraduate program applications for Australian and international applicants through UAC. How do I apply through UAC?

- September to January for Term 1 (February intake).
- Offers are released from:
  - December for Term 1 (February intake).
- Admissions are conditional on the submission of post-offer documentation. The minimum requirements are shown. Further details refer to UNSW Bachelor of Architectural Environments entry guide key.

Important information regarding UAC

- UAC requires you to provide your permission to use your school test results. For further details refer to UNSW Bachelor of Architectural Environments entry guide key.
- You will receive a confirmation of your application number and UAC PIN. You will be notified if your application is shortlisted for consideration and invited to submit further evidence of your qualifications.
- During the UAC application process, you will be offered the opportunity to receive your UAC PIN, if you have not already done so.
- Before you can apply online, you must create your UAC PIN, and you must confirm your permission to use school test results.

What is the cost to apply via UAC?

- The total predicted aggregate must be 2 or more. doubly weighted a predicted score of 3 for Law.

For candidates who are eligible for Foundation Year programs of all Australian universities.

- All international applicants are required to sit ISAT or UCAT ANZ. Applicants must also undertake knowledge and inquiry tests (KITE)

How do I apply through UAC?

- Online applications for Foundation Year programs of all Group of Eight universities.

Where do I find more information about Foundation Year programs of all Australian universities?

- For double degree combinations.
- Please contact us if you need further information or have any questions.