Misconduct procedures: For straight forward matters or where the matter is deemed not to be serious (see appendix A, Definitions). To be handled by the Designated Officer within the School, Department or Faculty (see section 5).

Serious Misconduct procedures: To be used where the matter is deemed serious (see appendix A, Definitions) and, or complex. To be used where the possible penalty, should the matter be proven, is suspension or exclusion. Allegations of Level 3 plagiarism are to be considered as serious misconduct. Such matters must be referred to the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Students) and Registrar (see section 6).

Appeals or external review: A student may appeal on the grounds of procedural unfairness to either the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Students) and Registrar or the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) (see section 8). Students may also refer the matter to an external body for review (see section 14).

It is the responsibility of the person initially receiving an allegation concerning a serious matter to refer it to the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Students) and Registrar. Advice on what may constitute a complaint of a serious nature can be sought from the SCAO (see also Appendix A, Definitions). On receipt of a serious matter the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Students) and Registrar may refer the matter to be investigated as serious misconduct (see section 6) or refer the matter to an external body.

10. Suspension or restriction in urgent circumstances

- 10.1 The power to suspend or restrict a student in urgent circumstances from all or part of the University or from access to its facilities, including the residential colleges, is to be used only to prevent or terminate a clear and present threat from the student concerned to the safety of any person within the University, the proper functioning of any University activity or the damage of University resources.
- 10.2 A suspension or restriction may also include a suspension from accessing UNSW information technology resources, from clinical sites, from laboratories, and affiliated entities used for UNSW research and teaching.

- 10.9 Any suspension or restriction (other than IT restrictions) shall be reported to the DVC (A).
- 10.10 The DVC (A) may extend the suspension or restriction period to cover the time taken to finalise any misconduct investigation, including any appeal, and may broaden the areas from which the student is suspended or restricted.
- 10.11 If in the course of misconduct proceedings or subsequent to a determination it appears that a suspension or restriction of a student was not warranted, the suspension may constitute a ground on which the student may apply for special consideration in the assessment of any courses being taken.

11. Withdrawal of allegations

At any stage the University may withdraw an allegation of misconduct or decline to proceed with an investigation. Where the formal process is underway all parties will be notified in writing that the allegation has been withdrawn. In most instances the University will then deem the matter resolved. However, in certain circumstances the University may deem the matter serious enough for an internal investigation to continue or for referral to an external agency.

12. Recordkeeping

- 12.1 Notes and documentation must be kept at all stages of an investigation including records of meetings, discussions, appeal hearings and actions proposed or taken. All records and notes produced and documents considered in handling an investigation under must be stored on an appropriate, confidential University file. The file must be created and stored in line with University policy.
- 12.2 No record of any misconduct allegation or proceedings brought against a student will be included on the student's academic transcript. Penalties of mark adjustment, suspension or exclusion will appear on a student's transcript.
- 12.3 At the conclusion of a matter the details should be added to the Central Misconduct Register. All matters where a student is found guilty of misconduct shall be entered on the Register, regardless of whether a penalty was made or not. Access to the CMR is restricted and monitored by the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Students) and Registrar.
- 12.4 The Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Students) and Registrar provides a report to the Academic Board which summarises misconduct cases. Reports are also held by the SCAO to ensure consistency in penalties imposed. Reports are written to ensure parties involved cannot be identified. Summarised reports may also be provided to Faculties, Schools or units to facilitate process improvement.

13. Confidentiality

All parties involved in a case are to maintain confidentiality. Information and records about a misconduct matter are divulged to those with direct involvement in the case with the following exceptions:

14. External review or referral

A matter may be referred to an external agency. Where this occurs the University may decide to cease any internal process pending external investigation. External bodies may require a student to have lodged an internal complaint first before they will become involved. The student should contact the external body directly for advice.

External agencies include:

- Australian Human Rights Commission
- Independent Commission against Corruption
