

Sasaguri Genkimon Study

Principal Investigator

Kenji Narazaki, PhD

Professor

Center for Liberal Arts

Fukuoka Institute of Technology

3-30-1 Wajiro-higashi, Higashi-ku,

Fukuoka 811-0295, Japan

e-mail: narazaki@fit.ac.jp

Data Contact

Chen Sanmei, Ph.D

Assistant Professor

Global Health Nursing

Department of Health Sciences

Graduate School of Biomedical and Health Sciences Hiroshima University, Japan

e-mail: chens@hiroshima-u.ac.jp

Summary

Setting:	Sasaguri, Japan
Start Date:	2011
End Date:	Ongoing
Participants:	2629 individuals aged 65+ years
Assessment Schedule:	2 years (and annual assessment of care needs cost and mortality)
Measures:	(1) Cognitive function tests (MoCA and MMSE); (2) Broad range of sociodemographic, lifestyle and cardiac, physical and mental health factors

Further Information

- Narazaki et al. Normative data for the Montreal Cognitive Assessment in a Japanese community-dwelling older population. Neuroepidemiology, 2013; 40: 23-29. \(304kb, PDF\)

