GENERAL TERMS

1 Definitions and interpretation

1.1 Definitions

In this agreement capitalised terms have the meanings given in the Agreement Details and:

Affiliate of a party means an entity who, directly or indirectly, Controls or is Controlled by or is under common Control with a party.

Agreement means this agreement between UNSW and the Recipient once executed.

Background IP means all Intellectual Property Rights in the Materials owned or controlled by UNSW at the Commencement Date, which UNSW has the right to license to third parties and that are necessary for the Recipient's use of the Materials for the Purpose under this Agreement.

Business Day means any day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday in the jurisdiction where a party is located.

Completion Date means the date on which:

- (a) The Recipient submits the final report to the reviewing Human Research Ethics Committee, or
- (b) The Project is discontinued, or
- (c) This Agreement is terminated in accordance with clause 9.2.

Confidential Information means information related to:

- (a) the Materials;
- (b) the Purpose; and
- (c) all other information disclosed by a party (Discloser) to the other party (Receiving Party) or which the Receiving Party otherwise becomes aware of during the Term or before the Commencement Date, that is:
 - (i) imparted in circumstances of confidence; or
 - (ii) by its nature reasonably to be considered confidential information of the Discloser or of a person to whom the Discloser owes a duty of confidence; and
- (d) all Records; and in each case, irrespective of the medium or means of disclosure or whether the disclosure is made directly or indirectly either by or to the Receiving Party or by the Discloser's Personnel, Affiliates or Related Bodies Corporate but does not include any Excluded Information.

Control has the meaning given to that term in section 50AA of the Corporations Act.

Corporations Act means the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

Derivatives means any improvements or modifications of the Materials made directly or indirectly by the Recipient, or anything derived by the Recipient from or using the Materials. Some examples include:

- (a) structural or functional analogues and homologues and purified or fractionated subsets of the Materials;
- (b) expression products, replicates and progeny of any of the above; and
- (c) polynucleotides coding for any of the above.

Excluded Information means information that:

- (a) is wholly in the public domain other than due to a breach of this Agreement or any other obligation of confidentiality;
- (b) was known by a Receiving Party at the time of disclosure by the Discloser or is subsequently disclosed to the Receiving Party by someone other than the Discloser and the information was not acquired directly or indirectly through a breach of this Agreement or any other obligation of confidentiality; or
- (c) was independently developed by the Receiving Party without any reference to or reliance on the Confidential Information.

Excluded Loss means any special, indirect or consequential Loss arising under or in connection with this Agreement, including any loss of profits, loss of anticipated savings or loss of reputation.

Government Agency means any government or governmental, administrative, monetary, fiscal or judicial body, department, commission, authority, tribunal, agency or entity in any part of the world.

GST means the tax imposed by the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth).

Insolvency Event means, with respect to a party:

- (a) a liquidator is appointed to the party;
- (b) the party applies to be voluntarily deregistered;
- (c) the party resolves to wind itself up; or
- (d) the party receives a notice from the Australian Securities and Investments Commission that it is to be deregistered, unless the deregistration process is stopped within one month after that notice.

Intellectual Property Rights means any inventions, patents, trade marks, service marks, design rights, database rights (whether registered or otherwise) and any applications, renewals and extensions for these, copyright, know-how, trade or business names and all other intellectual or industrial property rights anywhere in the world, whether or not registered or capable of registration and any associated goodwill and the right to have confidential information kept confidential.

Law means any applicable statute, regulation, by-law, ordinance, rule, proclamation, subordinate legislation, order in council, any other instrument of a legislative character, and court rules, that are in force from time to time in Australia (whether made by a State, Territory, the Commonwealth, or a local government) or elsewhere, and includes the common law and rules of equity as applicable from time to time.

Loss means liabilities, expenses, charges, claims, losses, damages and costs (including legal cost on a full indemnity basis) whether incurred by or awarded against a party.

Materials means the material (whether of biological, chemical, mechanical or other nature) specified in the Agreement Details and related information and data provided by UNSW and includes Unmodified Derivatives.

Personal Information means personal information as defined in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

Personnel means any employee, officer, principal agent, advisor, contractor, student or volunteer party.

Privacy Laws means the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) and the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and similar applicable laws in the jurisdiction where a party is located.

Publication means any manuscript, abstract, article, thesis, paper or other work intended for publication; any visual or oral presentation; or poster, electronic or web presentation.

Purpose means Purpose described in the Agreement Details, but does not include any clinical or commercial use.

Records means notes, memoranda, copies and records (in whatever form) made by a party containing, referring to or based on the Confidential Information.

Related Body Corporate has the meaning in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

Results means all outcomes generated by the Recipient's use of the Materials and Data (where applicable) and includes Intellectual Property Rights vesting in such results and data as well as non-patentable results, discoveries and data arising from the Recipient's use of the Materials.

Unmodified Derivatives means substances created by the Recipient which constitute an unmodified functional subunit or product expressed by the Materials. Some examples include: subclones of unmodified cell lines, purified or fractionated subsets of the Materials, proteins expressed by DNA/RNA supplied by UNSW, or monoclonal antibodies secreted by a hybridoma cell line.

1.2 Interpretation

Unless the context requires otherwise, in this agreement:

- (a) words include the singular and plural;
- (b) "includes" and "including" mean "including but not limited to";
- (c) a reference to:
 - (i) $ or dollars mean Australian dollars unless otherwise stated.
 - (ii) a person includes a partnership, a joint venture, an unincorporated association, a corporation and a government or statutory body or Authority.
 - (iii) a party includes the party's legal personal representatives, successors, assigns and parties substituted by operation of law.
 - (iv) any legislation includes any modification or replacement and subordinate legislation; and
 - (v) this or any other document includes the document as novated, varied or replaced.
- (d) if something is due on a day that is not a Business Day, then it can be done on or by the next Business Day; and
- (e) a party will not be disadvantaged in interpreting a clause just because they wrote, proposed or would benefit from it.

1.3 Order of precedence

This Agreement comprises the:

- (a) Agreement Details; and
- (b) General Terms, if the Agreement Details include any Special Conditions, the Special Conditions will have precedence over the General Terms to the extent of any ambiguity or inconsistency.

2 Supply of Materials

2.1 Subject to clause 2.2, UNSW agrees to make the Materials available to the Recipient on the terms and conditions of this Agreement:

- (a) on the Collection Date;
- (b) at the Collection Location;
- (c) in the Quantity and Packaging specified in the Agreement Details; and

- (d) in compliance with any Special Conditions (if any).
- 2.2 The Recipient must pay to UNSW the Fees (if any) within thirty (30) days of receipt of a tax invoice from UNSW.
- 2.3 If the Materials are not collected by or on behalf of the Recipient by the Collection Date or within sixty (60) days of the date of this Agreement, this Agreement will automatically terminate with immediate effect.
- 2.4 All risk in the Materials transfers to the Recipient on collection of the Materials. The Recipient is liable for risks in relation to the transport, storage, handling and use of the Materials.
- 2.5 The Recipient acknowledges and agrees that its right to use the Materials under this Agreement is non-exclusive and that nothing in this Agreement prevents UNSW from exploiting the Materials or supplying them to any third party.
- 2.6 UNSW will supply the Materials and related Data in a de-identified manner, that is, with removal of personal information relating to donors from whom the Materials have been derived.
- 2.7 The Recipient agrees that it will not make an attempt to re-identify the de-identified Materials supplied by UNSW.

3 Use of Materials and Data

- 3.1 The Recipient may only use the Materials and Data where applicable:
 - (a) for the Purpose;
 - (b) at the Project Location;
 - (c) during the Term; and
 - (d) on the terms and conditions of this Agreement,
- 3.2 The Recipient must:
 - (a) ensure the Materials are kept secure, confidential and under the active supervision of the Recipient Scientist;
 - (b) clearly identify the Material as the property of UNSW Biospecimen Services at all times;
 - (c) ensure the Materials are stored, transported and used in compliance with all applicable:
 - (i) Laws;
 - (ii) codes and guidelines;
 - (iii) ethical approvals; and
 - (iv) all reasonable directions made by UNSW;
 - (d) not use the Materials or Derivatives for patient treatment, clinical or diagnostic purposes without UNSW's express prior written consent;

- (e) immediately report to UNSW any use or disclosure of the Materials other than as permitted under this Agreement, take reasonable steps to mitigate the effects of such unauthorised use or disclosure and cooperate with all reasonable requirements of UNSW to that end;
- (f) notify UNSW promptly of all Results and provide UNSW with regular reports on the progress of the Project;
- (g) if requested, provide a report in a form acceptable to UNSW on the conclusion of the Project, including details of all Results, Derivatives and any related new Intellectual Property Rights;
- (h) not sell, loan or otherwise provide any Materials, Data or unmodified Derivatives to any third party, without UNSW's express prior written consent; and
- (i) not use UNSW's name or logo without the prior written consent of UNSW.

4 Ethics and biosafety

- 4.1 The use of the Materials for the Purpose must receive approval from a Human Research Ethics Committee.
- 4.2 Where a use of the Materials and Data outside of the Purpose receives approval of a Human Research Ethics Committee at any time after the Commencement Date, the Recipient must not use the Materials and Data unless the Recipient obtains prior written consent from UNSW. UNSW can in its absolute discretion withhold consent and is not bound to advise the Recipient of its reasons for withholding consent.
- 4.3 The Recipient must provide UNSW a copy of the final report for the Project on the date the Recipient submits a final report to the reviewing Human Research Ethics Committee.

5 Intellectual Property

- 5.1 The Materials, Data and any Intellectual Property Rights subsisting in or in relation to them remain the property of UNSW.
- 5.2 Nothing in this Agreement or the use of the Materials or Data by the Recipient grants to the Recipient a licence or other interest in any Intellectual Property Rights of UNSW other than as expressly set out in this Agreement.
- 5.3 UNSW grants to the Recipient during the Term a non-exclusive, fully paid up, non-transferable licence to use its Background IP for the Purpose on the terms of this Agreement.
- 5.4 Subject to any Special Conditions and clause

5.1, the Recipient will own all rights in any Derivatives and the Results. For the avoidance of doubt UNSW will own all rights, including Intellectual Property rights in:

- (a) any Materials incorporated in the Derivatives;
- (b) Unmodified Derivatives; and
- (c) UNSW's Background IP.

5.5 On request, a party must sign all documents and do all things (including requiring its Personnel to sign documents) as necessary or desirable to vest, confirm, perfect and record the ownership rights of a party under this Agreement.

6 Confidentiality

6.1 Confidentiality obligations

The Receiving Party must:

- (a) use the Confidential Information solely for the Purpose;
- (b) not disclose or permit the disclosure or use of the Confidential Information, except as provided in this Agreement;
- (c) not use, and ensure that its Personnel do not use, any Confidential Information for any purpose other than the Purpose in compliance with its obligations under this Agreement;
- (d) take all action necessary to maintain the confidential nature of the Confidential Information, including:
 - (i) take reasonable steps to keep the Confidential Information:
 - (A) within its possession and control, and
 - (B) secure to protect it from unauthorised access, disclosure, use, or loss, damage or destruction; and
 - (ii) notify the Discloser as soon as the Receiving Party becomes aware of a breach of this Agreement or any actual, suspected or likely unauthorised access to, or use or disclosure of the Confidential Information.

6.2 Permitted disclosures

- (a) During the Agreement Term, the Receiving Party may disclose the Confidential Information to its Personnel, Affiliates and Related Bodies Corporate, who have a specific need to access the Confidential Information for the Purpose, provided they are made aware of the confidential nature of the Confidential Information, the terms of this Agreement and are bound by an obligation of confidentiality, before they are provided with or given access to Confidential Information.

- (b) The Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information if required by any Law or order of any Government Agency provided that it:
 - (i) only discloses the minimum amount of information necessary to comply with the requirement;
 - (ii) takes all reasonably available legal measures to avoid such disclosure;
 - (iii) notifies the Discloser as soon as practicable after the order of such disclosure so that the Discloser may seek an appropriate protective order or other remedy; and
 - (iv) consults with the Discloser as to the form of disclosure to be made and takes account of any reasonable comments of the Discloser.

7 Other Disclosures

7.1 The Recipient acknowledges that UNSW has reporting obligations to institutions that provide research data to UNSW and its Affiliates. Those reporting obligations include disclosure

- (a) the number of Materials transferred to third parties undertaking research, and
- (b) details of those third parties.

7.2 The Recipient agrees that UNSW compliance with the reporting obligations in clause 7.1 will not constitute a breach of this Agreement.

8 Privacy

8.1 Each party agrees to:

- (a) comply with the relevant Privacy Laws;
- (b) not do anything with any Personal Information they receive or hold that will cause the other party to be in breach of any Privacy Laws; and
- (c) assist and co-operate with the other party in resolving any complaints made under any Privacy Laws.

9 Publication

9.1 General

- (a) The Recipient is entitled to publish the Results obtained through use of the Materials, provided that no Confidential Information owned by UNSW is disclosed, subject to this clause 9.
- (b) The Recipient must give notice of any proposed Publication in respect of the Project to the other party at least thirty (30) days before the publication date.

(c) Acting reasonably, UNSW may, within that thirty (30) day period do any one or more of the following:

- (i) provide comments on the proposed Publication to the Recipient, which that party must consider but is not obliged to follow;
- (ii) require the Recipient to delay Publication for no more than ninety (90) days to allow UNSW to file patent applications or take other measure to protect its proprietary rights; and/or
- (iii) require the Recipient to remove specified Confidential Information from the Publication.

(d) If the Recipient has not received any comments from UNSW on the proposed Publication within thirty (30) days of giving notice under clause (b), the Recipient may make the Publication.

(e) The parties must ensure that all Publications in respect of the Project appropriately acknowledge the contribution of any other party and their Specified Personnel who have provided significant intellectual or scholarly contributions in connection with a Publication (or any research relating to the Publication) in accordance with usual academic practice.

(f) The Recipient must acknowledge the role of UNSW in any Publication relating to the Purpose containing or referring to Materials in accordance with the Form of Acknowledgement shown in Schedule 1 to the Agreement. All Results using the Materials must be presented and published in a manner that ensures that no individual can be identified or re-identified.

(g) The Recipient will ensure that no Publication contains any personal information or identifiers relating to the Material supplied by UNSW.

9.2 Australian Department of Human Services

For any Publication containing Materials derived from the Australian Department of Human Services (ADHS), the Recipient must:

- (a) notify UNSW of the impending Publication at least 14 days before submitting for publication.
- (b) acknowledge in the Publication the ADHS as the source of the Materials.

10 Term and Termination

10.1 Term of Agreement

(a) Unless it is terminated earlier in accordance with its terms, this Agreement commences on the Commencement Date and will continue until the earlier of:

- (i) the expiry of the Term (if specified in the Agreement Details);
- (ii) the Material being no longer required for the Project that is undertaken as part of the Purpose; or
- (iii) expiry or non-renewal of any applicable ethics approval.

(b) The parties may agree to extend the Term of this Agreement by agreement in writing prior to the end of the then current Term.

10.2 Termination

(a) Either party may terminate this Agreement for any reason by the provision of thirty (30) days' written notice to the other party.

(b) UNSW may terminate this Agreement immediately by written notice to the Recipient if it:

- (i) commits a breach of any term of this Agreement and, if the breach is capable of remedy, fails to remedy the breach within ten (10) Business Days after being required to do so in writing by UNSW;
- (ii) becomes the subject of any Insolvency Event.

10.3 Consequences of expiry or termination

(a) The Recipient must cease all use of and return to UNSW, or on UNSW's instruction, destroy all Materials and Confidential Information:

- (i) if the Project discontinues;
- (ii) there is no further need for the Materials;
- (iii) return of the Materials is necessary to ensure UNSW complies with any applicable Law; or
- (iv) on expiration or termination of this Agreement.

(b) Despite 10.3(a), the Recipient may retain a copy of the Confidential Information (acting reasonably and only for as long as it is reasonably required):

- (i) to fulfil legal, regulatory or reporting obligations;
- (ii) that is stored electronically due to an existing routine data backup, provided the Confidential Information is deleted from local hard drives and no attempt is made to recover it other than as required by Law; and
- (iii) provided the Recipient maintains the confidentiality of the Confidential Information in accordance with clause 6.

(c) On termination or expiry of this Agreement, if requested by UNSW, the Recipient must:

- (i) conduct an audit and provide UNSW with a complete list of all Materials that remain in its control at the date of termination or expiry; and
- (ii) certify in writing to UNSW that any remaining Materials have been returned or destroyed.

11 Liability and indemnity

- 11.1 The Materials are provided on an "as is" basis meaning that, to the extent permitted by Law, UNSW makes no representations and excludes all warranties, express or implied, including without limitation warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular use, safety or quality in relation to the supply of the Materials.
- 11.2 To the extent permitted by Law, neither party is liable to the other party under or in connection with this Agreement for any Excluded Loss.
- 11.3 UNSW's liability under this Agreement will be limited to the cost of replacing / resupplying the Materials.
- 11.4 The Recipient releases and indemnifies UNSW and its Personnel (those indemnified) against all Loss incurred by those indemnified where such Loss arises out of or in connection with the Recipient's collection, transport, use, storage or disposal of the Materials.
- 11.5 The Recipient's liability to indemnify UNSW and its Personnel under this Agreement is reduced proportionally to the extent that any negligent act or omission of UNSW or its Personnel caused or contributed to the Loss.

12 Insurance

- 12.1 The Recipient must during the Term take out and maintain adequate insurance in relation to the use of the Materials and the Project, including any insurance specified in the Agreement Details (if any).
- 12.2 UNSW may request the Recipient to provide written evidence of such insurance (including certificates of currency from the insurer).

13 Taxes

- 13.1 If taxes are payable on any supply made under this Agreement (including GST), the Recipient must pay an additional amount equivalent to the taxes.
- 13.2 UNSW will provide a tax invoice to the Recipient for any payments due under this Agreement.

14 Notices

- 14.1 A notice must be:

- (a) in writing, in English and signed by a person properly authorised by the sender;
- (b) sent to the receiving party's Address for Notices set out in the Agreement Details; and
- (c) hand delivered or sent by prepaid express post, reputable courier service or email.

- 14.2 A notice given under clause 14.1 is taken to be received as follows:

- (a) hand delivered, on delivery;
- (b) express post, two business days after posting;
- (c) courier, on signed acknowledgement of receipt, and
- (d) email, when the sender's system confirms the email has been sent through, and no error message comes back.

- 14.3 Notice received on a day that is not a Business Day (or after 5pm on a Business Day), is taken to be received at 9am on the next Business Day.

15 Dispute Resolution

- 15.1 This clause applies to any dispute between the parties in connection with this agreement (Dispute). Each party must follow this dispute resolution process before commencing legal proceedings, except to seek an urgent injunction or declaration.

- 15.2 If a Dispute arises, either party must give written notice to the other party, setting out reasonable details of the Dispute (Dispute Notice).

- 15.3 Within 20 Business Days of receiving the Dispute Notice, the Senior Representatives of each party must meet in person or by phone or video conference to try to resolve the Dispute in good faith. The Senior Representatives must have appropriate authority to resolve the Dispute. The Senior Representatives are:

- (a) UNSW's relevant Deputy Vice-Chancellor (or equivalent) or their delegate, and
- (b) the other party's Chief Executive Officer or their delegate.

- 15.4 If the Dispute has not been resolved, either party can commence legal proceedings.

16 General

- 16.1 Nothing in this agreement creates or evidences a relationship of partnership, joint venture, employment, principal and agent or trustee and beneficiary between the parties.
- 16.2 If a party does not require performance of an obligation under this agreement, it will not operate as a waiver of the obligation. Any waiver must be in writing

- 16.3 A party must not assign, novate, or otherwise deal with this agreement without the written consent of the other party.
- 16.4 This agreement is the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the subject matter of this agreement. It supersedes any prior agreement or understanding on anything connected with that subject matter.
- 16.5 The terms of this agreement are severable. Any term of this agreement that is wholly or partially unenforceable, unlawful or void is severed to the extent that it is unenforceable, unlawful or void. The rest of this agreement remains in force.

- 16.6 Any variation to this agreement must be made in writing and signed by the parties.
- 16.7 This agreement can be executed electronically or by handwriting in any number of counterparts. All counterparts together form one agreement.
- 16.8 This agreement is governed by the Laws of New South Wales. The parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales and the Commonwealth of Australia.

SAMPLE

1 Schedule 1 – Form of Acknowledgment

Form of Acknowledgement – UNSW, in accordance with clause 9.1(f):

By accessing specimens and/or data, you agree to acknowledge the HSA Biobank or the Health Precincts Biobank in any publications arising from the use of specimens and data provided by using the following text.

Biospecimens and data used in this research were obtained from the Health Precincts Biobank (formerly named HSA Biobank), UNSW Biospecimen Services, UNSW Sydney, Australia. The Biobank acknowledges the key contributions(s) of The Royal Hospital for Women, St George Hospital and NSW Health Pathology.

We also ask for all publications resulting from samples and/or data to be reported to the Health Precincts Biobank. The Health Precincts Biobank Project Officer will contact you periodically to report on research output.
