Summary of the Course

Subject Area: Media, Culture and Technology/Global Media: Markets, Flows and Cultures' focuses on the relationship between media and globalisation. We will examine the history of international trade flows in audiovisual goods and services and explore how these have changed through global trends toward regionalisation, counter flow and the increasing transnational production and distribution of media. Newly emerging forms of culture and identity based on the experience of cosmopolitanism, hybridity and diaspora will be examined in detail in relation to media forms such as television formats and drama programs, networked media, film and music. Students completing this course will receive a thorough grounding in the way media contribute to the intensification of our experience of the world as a whole, which will pave the way for further study in international and transnational media.

At the conclusion of this course the student will be able to

1. Identify and apply key concepts and theories which explain the relationship between media and globalisation
2. Account for the role global media plays in fostering new patterns of culture and identification, which are no longer solely based on geography, and in doing so appreciate diversity among and within cultures.
3. Discuss the balance between the 'global' and the 'local' in different forms of media in relation to the context of their production and distribution.
4. Identify key trends and patterns in the flow of audio-visual goods and services and evaluate the impact of attempts to regulate them

Teaching Strategies

Rationale:

The formal teaching conducted in this course will consist of lectures and tutorials. Learning will be supported through a course module on the University's LMS. Lectures are designed to provide an overview that probes the concepts and discusses the issues related to each week's topic. The tutorials are designed to promote active student engagement through group work and thoughtfully crafted exercises and media examples that highlight and explore the issues at stake. Group work and presentations conducted in the tutorial context will seek to foreground and harness the productive diversity that is all too often latent in UNSW's student population. Students are encouraged to discuss and illustrate their experience of globalisation and cultural identity as a valued way of exploring the media's relationship to globalisation. Social networking platforms will be used to encourage students to communicate and publicise information and other content they have uncovered in the media that illustrate the main themes of the course and promote student engagement.

Teaching Strategies

The course is delivered in the traditional (large group) lecture and (small group) tutorial format. Although a lecture theatre and format is not always conducive to fostering discussion or asking questions we would like to approach these as very much including both. At times, student participation in lectures will be elicited and we would like students to feel that this is also a space where they can be actively involved.

Likewise, tutorials will be conducted with similar goals in mind. Attendance at these sessions is compulsory and students must come prepared and ready to participate. It is absolutely essential that they view these sessions as a chance to verbalise their own understanding of the course and its content so that they can benefit from discussing and sharing ideas and learning from the different perspectives of people in the room.
Assessment

Please Note: You must make a serious attempt at all Assessments to be eligible to Pass this course

Submission of Assessment Tasks

All written assignments need to be submitted to Turnitin on the course Moodle site. You must submit written work in 12-point font, double spaced and paginated. Do keep an electronic and hard copy for yourself. If you have any problems submitting via Turnitin, send your Convener a word doc or pdf version of your assignment immediately together with an explanation of the problem you are encountering.

You should then follow the protocol outlined at the following site: http://teaching.unsw.edu.au/moodle-students-help

Advice about whom to contact is given when you log into Moodle. Such advice includes the following: If you have trouble logging in, or you cannot see your course once you log in, please contact the IT Service Centre for assistance.

For enrolment and login issues or problems with Moodle and its tools, like Turnitin, please contact the IT Service Centre

IT Service Centre Email: itservicecentre@unsw.edu.au
Internal: x51333
External: (02) 9385 1333
International: +61 2 9385 1333

Please do not send your Course Convener a copy of your assignment unless you are unable to submit via Turnitin. Once you have submitted, you will receive a receipt to confirm that you have successfully submitted. Keep this receipt as proof of the date and time that you lodged your assignment. If you do not receive such notification, you must ask the IT Service Centre to check whether your upload was successful.

You are responsible for submitting the correct file you wish to have marked. You need to double check your submission to ensure you have submitted the correct file. There is no submitting "the wrong file". Late penalties will apply if you contact the convenor after the due date to change the submission you previously made. Submitted files may not be changed if there is substantial plagiarism that can result in an allegation against you.

Please be aware that when you submit a UNSW course assignment online, through a facility such as Turnitin, you are automatically acknowledging that you have understood and abided by the University requirements in respect of student academic misconduct outlined in the Student Code Policy and Student Misconduct Procedures, both of which are available at http://my.unsw.edu.au/student/academiclife/assessment/StudentMisconduct.html

You are declaring that the assessment is your own work, except where acknowledged, and has not been submitted for academic credit previously in whole or in part.
In addition, you are declaring that the assessor of this item may, for assessment purposes:

- Provide a copy to another staff member of the University
- Communicate a copy of this assessment item to a plagiarism checking service (such as Turnitin) which may then retain a copy of the assessment item on its database for the purpose of future plagiarism checking.

Turnitin Submission

If you encounter a problem when attempting to submit your assignment through Turnitin, please telephone External Support on 9385 3331 or email them on externalteltsupport@unsw.edu.au. Support hours are 8:00am – 10:00pm on weekdays and 9:00am – 5:00pm on weekends (365 days a year). If you are unable to submit your assignment due to a fault with Turnitin you may apply for an extension, but you must retain your ticket number from External Support (along with any other relevant documents) to include as evidence to support your extension application. If you email External Support you will automatically receive a ticket number, but if you telephone you will need to specifically ask for one. Turnitin also provides updates on their system status on Twitter.

Generally, assessment tasks must be submitted electronically via either Turnitin or a Moodle assignment. In instances where this is not possible, it will be stated on your course’s Moodle site with alternative submission details.

Late Assessment Penalties

Students are responsible for the submission of assessment tasks by the required dates and times. Depending of the extent of delay in the submission of an assessment task past the due date and time, one of the following late penalties will apply unless special consideration or a blanket extension due to a technical outage is granted. For the purpose of late penalty calculation, a ‘day’ is deemed to be each 24-hour period (or part thereof) past the stipulated deadline for submission.

- Work submitted less than 10 days after the stipulated deadline is subject to a deduction of 5% of the total awardable mark from the mark that would have been achieved if not for the penalty for every day past the stipulated deadline for submission. That is, a student who submits an assignment with a stipulated deadline of 4:00pm on 13 May 2016 at 4:10pm on 14 May 2016 will incur a deduction of 10%.

Task with a non–percentage mark

If the task is marked out of 25, then late submission will attract a penalty of a deduction of 1.25 from the mark awarded to the student for every 24-hour period (or part thereof) past the stipulated deadline.

Example: A student submits an essay 48 hours and 10 minutes after the stipulated deadline. The total possible mark for the essay is 25. The essay receives a mark of 17. The student’s mark is therefore 17 – [25 (0.05 x 3)] = 13.25

Task with a percentage mark

If the task is marked out of 100%, then late submission will attract a penalty of a deduction of 5% from the mark awarded to the student for every 24-hour period (or part thereof) past the stipulated deadline.

Example: A student submits an essay 48 hours and 10 minutes after the stipulated deadline. The essay is marked out of 100%. The essay receives a mark of 68. The student's mark is therefore 68 – 15 = 53

ARTS2092 Semester 2, 2018 published at 20-07-2018 // © University of New South Wales, 2018
• Work submitted 10 to 19 days after the stipulated deadline will be assessed and feedback provided but a mark of zero will be recorded. If the work would have received a pass mark but for the lateness and the work is a compulsory course component (hurdle requirement), a student will be deemed to have met that requirement;

• Work submitted 20 or more days after the stipulated deadline will not be accepted for assessment and will receive no feedback, mark or grade. If the assessment task is a compulsory component of the course a student will receive an Unsatisfactory Fail (UF) grade as a result of unsatisfactory performance in an essential component of the course.

Special Consideration Applications

You can apply for special consideration when illness or other circumstances interfere with your assessment performance.

Sickness, misadventure or other circumstances beyond your control may:

* Prevent you from completing a course requirement,

* Keep you from attending an assessable activity,

* Stop you submitting assessable work for a course,

* Significantly affect your performance in assessable work, be it a formal end-of-semester examination, a class test, a laboratory test, a seminar presentation or any other form of assessment.

For further details in relation to Special Consideration including "When to Apply", "How to Apply" and "Supporting Documentation" please refer to the Special Consideration website:

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of others and presenting them as your own. It can take many forms, from deliberate cheating to accidentally copying from a source without acknowledgement.

UNSW groups plagiarism into the following categories:

Copying: using the same or very similar words to the original text or idea without acknowledging the source or using quotation marks. This also applies to images, art and design projects, as well as presentations where someone presents another’s ideas or words without credit.

Inappropriate paraphrasing: Changing a few words and phrases while mostly retaining the original structure and/or progression of ideas of the original, and information without acknowledgement. This also applies in presentations where someone paraphrases another’s ideas or words without credit and to piecing together quotes and paraphrases into a new whole, without appropriate referencing.

Collusion: working with others but passing off the work as a person’s individual work. Collusion also includes providing your work to another student before the due date, or for the purpose of them plagiarising at any time, paying another person to perform an academic task, stealing or acquiring another person’s academic work and copying it, offering to complete another person’s work or seeking payment for completing academic work.

Inappropriate citation: Citing sources which have not been read, without acknowledging the "secondary" source from which knowledge of them has been obtained.

Duplication ("self-plagiarism"): submitting your own work, in whole or in part, where it has previously been prepared or submitted for another assessment or course at UNSW or another university.

Correct referencing practices:

- Paraphrasing, summarising, essay writing and time management
- Appropriate use of and attribution for a range of materials including text, images, formulae and concepts.

Individual assistance is available on request from The Learning Centre (http://www.lc.unsw.edu.au/). Students are also reminded that careful time management is an important part of study and one of the identified causes of plagiarism is poor time management. Students should allow sufficient time for research, drafting and proper referencing of sources in preparing all assessment items.

UNSW Library also has the ELISE tool available to assist you with your study at UNSW. ELISE is designed to introduce new students to studying at UNSW but it can also be a great refresher during your study.

Completing the ELISE tutorial and quiz will enable you to:

- analyse topics, plan responses and organise research for academic writing and other assessment tasks
- effectively and efficiently find appropriate information sources and evaluate relevance to your needs
- use and manage information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose
- better manage your time
• understand your rights and responsibilities as a student at UNSW
• be aware of plagiarism, copyright, UNSW Student Code of Conduct and Acceptable Use of
  UNSW ICT Resources Policy
• be aware of the standards of behaviour expected of everyone in the UNSW community
• locate services and information about UNSW and UNSW Library

Some of these areas will be familiar to you, others will be new. Gaining a solid understanding of all the related aspects of ELISE will help you make the most of your studies at UNSW.
