Workload	Includes 150 hours including class contact hours, readings, class preparation, assessment, follow up activities, etc.
Schedule	http://classutil.unsw.edu.au/EDST_T1.html

4. SUMMARY OF COURSE

The focus of this course is on the practice of mentoring.

THE MAIN WAYS IN WHICH THE COURSE HAS CHANGED SINCE LAST TIME AS A RESULT OF STUDENT FEEDBACK:

- New resources have been added to assist students to succeed in the online mode

5. IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Assessment: Students must pass ALL assessments to pass the course. Only by passing all assessments can the AITSL Professional Graduate Teaching Standards be achieved.

Attendance: It is expected that any student enrolled in an EDST course with the School of Education will make a commitment to their learning and attend all classes in full where content is delivered in a face-to-face mode except in certain circumstances where absence is due to illness, misadventure or unforeseen circumstances beyond the student's control. A minimum attendance requirement of 80% is required for each course. In certain circumstances, a student may miss up to 20% of a course without formal documentation and up to 33% of a course with formal documentation (sent via email to course convenor) providing all the requirements detailed below are met. Students not meeting the attendance requirements outlined above will be awarded an Unsatisfactory Fail (UF) for that course regardless of their performance in the assessment tasks or other requirements for the course.

Please note the following attendance expectations, requirements, and consequences:

- A minimum attendance requirement of 80% of all scheduled classes (i.e. lectures, tutorials, workshops, seminars) for the subject in which you are enrolled is required by UNSW
- Attendance in person is the only option for tutorials, seminars, and workshops.
- Where attendance is recorded for a scheduled class (i.e. lectures, tutorials, workshops, seminars) either by electronic means or via an attendance register it is the responsibility of the student to make sure they successfully record their attendance by providing all the details required.

It is the responsibility of the student to catch up on any learning missed due to absences.

The School of Education upholds the UNSW attendance policy and is in accordance with the Arts and Social Sciences guidelines and expectations. UNSW policy on Attendance and Absence that can be found at: <https://www.arts.unsw.edu.au/current-students/academic-information/Protocols-Guidelines/#attendanceguidelines>

7. RATIONALE FOR THE INCLUSION OF CONTENT AND TEACHING APPROACH

This course enables students to develop the practical skills and theoretical awareness of mentoring best practice. Participants' mentoring practice is at the centre of the learning progression and is supported through weekly Moodle activities that promote critical reflection.

8. TEACHING STRATEGIES

This course will be taught wholly online with a strong emphasis on student participation. Students will be provided with online material and references to research journals which they will be expected to read. Students will have the opportunity of sharing their mentoring artifacts with each other in an online discussion group.

Please see the Student Policies and Procedures for information regarding submission, extensions, special consideration, late penalties and hurdle requirements etc.

Assessment Task 1: Annotated Portfolio

Details

1. Generate two evidence sets of your mentoring practice that demonstrate mentoring at the planning, teaching and assessment stages of the teaching-learning cycle, e.g., you may have an annotated lesson plan or unit of work, an observation feedback sheet and annotated work samples as one evidence set.
2. Annotate these evidence sets using the appropriate professional standards for your own mentoring practice. Be sure to include the next steps that you would take in the mentoring process.

Assessment Task 2: Mentoring Report

Details

1. Use the next steps from assessment task one to conduct further mentoring.
2. Generate two evidence sets of your mentoring practice that demonstrate mentoring at the planning, teaching and assessment stages of the teaching-learning cycle, e.g. you may have an annotated lesson plan or unit of work, an observation feedback sheet and annotated work samples as one evidence set.
3. Annotate these evidence sets using the appropriate professional standards for your own mentoring practice. Be sure to include the next steps that you would take in the mentoring process.
4. Write a report of your mentoring that relates the annotated evidence sets to the relevant literature. Include your goals for your next cycle of mentoring that you have created as a result of your analysis here.
