3. COURSE DETAILS

Course Name	Introduction to University Learning and Teaching
Credit Points	6 units of credit (6 UOC)
Workload	150 hours incorporating (a) class contact and individual and group learning activities completed during the Foundations in University Learning and Teaching (FUL) Program, and (b) online work, readings, and the preparation of assignments.
Schedule	The course is offered as scaffolded online study with weekly online seminars between 5 and 7pm on Tuesday in weeks 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 8 and 10. http://classutil.unsw.edu.au/EDST_T3.html

SUMMARY OF COURSE

This course is the single compulsory core course in the Graduate Certificate in University Learning and Teaching (GCULT) Program.

It builds on UNSW's Foundations of University Learning and Teaching (FUL) Program and provides a pathway from non-accredited to accredited study in university learning and teaching. As such, the course comprises the content, learning activities and experiences of UNSW's Foundations of University Learning and Teaching (FUL) Program and additional scaffolded online work, readings, and assignments.

The course will introduce you to a range of topics and issues in learning and teaching in higher education. You will engage with current thinking on learning and teaching in higher education, consider various approaches to pedagogy, and investigate a learning and teaching challenge in your own discipline, in a scholarly and reflective way to improve your teaching practices.

PRE-REQUISITE

Satisfactory completion of UNSW Foundations of University Learning and Teaching (FUL) Program or an equivalent program from another institution.

THE MAIN WAYS IN WHICH THE COURSE HAS CHANGED AS A RESULT OF STUDENT FEEDBACK

- You will be provided with more opportunities for engagement with the teaching staff and your fellow students via weekly on-line learning activities and seminars
- You will be given the opportunity to give and receive feedback on draft assignments through the inclusion of a peer review exercise prior to the submission date for each assignment.
- You will be provided with a recording of the online seminar each week via Moodle.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES (CLOs)

At the end of this course you should have developed a demonstrable capacity to:

Outcome		Assessment/s
1	Apply critical reflective practice to review and improve your own teaching, teaching within your discipline, student learning and related activities	1 & 2
2	Apply scholarly readings on curriculum, assessment and pedagogy to inform teaching and related educational practices.	1 & 2
3	Identify professional and ethical implications of adopting new educational practices for teachers and students	2

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES (PLOs)

By the end of your studies in the GCULT program you should be able to:

Outcome		Assessment/s
1	Articulate specialised knowledge of key theories of learning and teaching in higher education	1 & 2
2	Analyse factors affecting learning and teaching in higher education, nationally and internationally	1 & 2
3	Apply principles of good practice for learning and teaching to higher education	1 & 2
4	Apply scholarly and reflective practices for continuous improvement in learning and teaching.	1 & 2
5	Communicate and collaborate in scholarly, ethical, respectful and responsible ways.	1 & 2

4. RATIONALE FOR THE INCLUSION OF CONTENT AND TEACHING APPROACH

Educators learn best when they are actively engaged in analysing their own teaching and related practices and implementing new solutions to identified problems or challenges.

5. TEACHING STRATEGIES

The teaching strategy in this course requires you to collate, reflect, analyse and evaluate your own discipline-based teaching related practices, and through scholarly reading, identify pathways that may lead to evidence of improvement in student learning outcomes and/or experience.

The bulk of the work will be carried out by you independently or as part of a small group. However, you will be scaffolded and supported in your work by weekly learning activities and online seminars.

The course will make use of Moodle as the learning management system and Zoom as the online seminar tool.

There will be opportunities for you to give and receive feedback on your own and others' developing understanding of learning and teaching in higher education prior to the submission of each required assessment task.

The weekly work modules will help focus your learning through engagement with key readings and resources on topics related to the work you need to do to complete your two required assessment tasks.

Moodle Course

EDST 5121 Introduction to University Learning and Teaching has an on-line presence within Moodle where you can find:

1. information concerning the structure and processes of the course (including further information about assessment tasks)
2. Learning Modules for each of the topics included in the Course Schedule
3. tools that you can use for independent research, collaboration, and sharing of information.

You should ensure that you are a regular visitor to and user of this site as it will be the principal means by which the Course Convenor will communicate information and provide feedback to you and your colleagues.

Weekly Learning Activities and Online Seminars

The weekly learning activities and online seminars associated with the course represent a good opportunity for you to:

- engage with your peers in negotiating the meaning of the key constructs and theories of university learning and teaching examined in the course,
- compare and contrast the significance of these constructs and theories for you and for others
- identify individuals with whom you may share similar interests or who are facing similar learning and teaching challenges to yourself, who could become a learning partner.

Please note, that as this course is offered fully online, to meet the School of Education's Attendance Requirements (see <https://education.arts.unsw.edu.au/students/courses/course-outlines/>) you will need to complete/participate in 80% (6 out of 7) of all weekly learning activities and online seminars.

Online seminars will be conducted via ZOOM.

Login details for each seminar can be found in the resources section in the RELEVANT WEEK in the course's Moodle site.

Simply open your web browser and enter the information required from that provided.

Seminars will begin at 5.00 pm "sharp" each Tuesday evening in weeks 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 8 and 10.

If you intend to participate you should LOGIN FROM 4.55 - 5.00 pm.

Login after 5.10 pm will be blocked to prevent disruption to the class.

Seminars will run as long as needed and will always conclude by 7.00pm.

UNSW Library and Online Search Engines

Information concerning higher education learning and teaching can be identified and accessed from a wide variety of sources including the UNSW Library and its website:

<http://info.library.unsw.edu.au/web/services/services.html>

In addition, a number of on-line search engines such as Google Scholar, and websites such as those associated with the NTEU, Universities Australia, the Go8, or Universitas 21 can assist you to locate and access relevant information.

8. ASSESSMENT

Assessment	Length	Weight	Course Learning Outcomes Assessed	Program Learning Outcomes Assessed	Due Date
Task 1: Review of a learning and teaching challenge in your discipline	2000 words or equiv.	50 %	1, 2	1, 2, 3, 4, 5	By 5.00pm Monday 28 October 2019
Task 2: Plan to address a learning and teaching challenge in your discipline	2000 words or equiv.	50 %	1, 2, 3	1, 2, 3, 4, 5	By 5.00pm Monday 25 November 2019

Submission of assessments

Students are required to follow their lecturer's instructions when submitting their work for assessment. All assessment will be submitted online via Moodle by 5pm. Students are also required to keep all drafts, original data and other evidence of the authenticity of the work for at least one year after examination. If an assessment is mislaid the student is responsible for providing a further copy. Please see the Student Policies and Procedures for information regarding submission, extensions, special consideration, late penalties and hurdle requirements etc. <https://education.arts.unsw.edu.au/students/courses/course-outlines/>

Assessment tasks in this course build on those you have already completed in your Foundations of University Learning and Teaching (FUL) studies by providing you with further opportunities based on your deepening understanding of the theories and principles that underlie effective teaching and learning in higher education generally and in your discipline in particular, to identify an aspect of current teaching and/or learning practice in your discipline that you believe is in need of renovation or improvement, and to propose a plan to bring this improvement about.

Drafts of assessment task responses submitted for Peer Review can be emailed directly to your peer review partner and the Course Convenor using your student email address.

FINAL submissions in response to assessment tasks MUST be submitted online in the form of a ".doc" or ".docx" file via Turnitin in the Course's Moodle Site.

You do not need to use a cover sheet on your assessment tasks. However, you are expected to put your name and student number on every page of your assignment submissions (where appropriate).

Assessment Details

Assessment Task 1 (50% weighting) (Maximum of 2000 words) (CLOs 1 and 2)

Submission Dates:

- Draft for Peer Review: 5.00pm on Friday 18 October 2019
- FINAL Submission Date: 5.00pm on Monday 28 October 2019

- a. Identify an aspect of teaching and/or learning in your own / your discipline's current practice that you believe is in need of renovation or improvement.
- b. Taking into account the local, national and international context in which you work, and relevant educational literature, prepare a review and scholarly critique of this area of your / your discipline's current learning and/or teaching practice. Your review should make reference to the UNSW context and especially the university's goal to ensure all students benefit from its goal to create a Scientia Education Experience.

Assessment Task 2 (50% weighting) (Maximum of 2000 words) (CLOs 1, 2 and 3)

Submission Dates:

- Draft for Peer Review: 5.00pm on Friday 8 November 2019
- FINAL Submission Date: 5.00pm on Monday 25 November 2019

Building on your response to Assessment Task 1:

- a. Outline, with reference to the appropriate scholarly literature on learning and teaching in higher education, the changes that you believe need to be made to you / your discipline's current teaching and/or learning practices to address the area(s) of practice that you identified as being in need of improvement. In doing so, take into consideration the ethical as well as pedagogical implications of adopting new or changed educational practices.
- b. Prepare a broad action plan that might be used to guide the implementation of the changes you have identified. The action plan should be in a table format and should contain a succinct articulation of the purpose and desired outcomes of the change process; a prioritized list of actions required to effect these changes; along with an indication of who should take responsibility for implementing each of these actions

Assessment Criteria, Grading and Feedback

In assessing your work two questions will be considered:

1. Have you fulfilled ALL of the requirements of the assessment task?
2. How well have you demonstrated your achievement of the learning outcomes (including the graduate capabilities) associated with the task?

Feedback on each assessment task (Assessment Task 1 and Assessment 2) will be provided:

- Formatively, by a peer, via a private correspondence with your peer review partner and the Course Convenor
- Summative, by the Course Convenor, on a designated Feedback Sheet (copies of which follow) in accord with the schedule below.
