3. COURSE DETAILS

Course Name	Creative Arts
Credit Points	6 units of credit (uoc)
Workload	Includes 150 hours including class contact hours, readings, class preparation, assessment, follow up activities, etc.
Schedule	http://classutil.unsw.edu.au/EDST_T3.html Six Wednesdays (October 14 th to November 18 th)

SUMMARY OF THE COURSE

This unit is designed to provide students with an introduction to the field of the Creative Arts in education. Introductory experiences in the areas of Visual Arts, Music, Dance and Drama develop students' foundational knowledge and understandings of the distinctive nature of subject disciplines. Students will develop a critical appreciation of the unique contributions the arts make to society and how these contributions can be engaged with and interpreted in the primary school classroom. Pedagogical principles, theoretical components and practice within Visual Arts, Music, Dance and Drama are examined and applied in the design and implementation of classroom practices in school settings.

THE MAIN WAYS IN WHICH THE COURSE HAS CHANGED SINCE LAST TIME AS A RESULT OF STUDENT FEEDBACK:

- Continuation of face to face tutorials for practical workshops and peer presentations
- The addition of online learning
- Adjustments have been made to the pre-assessment Quiz and additional scaffolding developed for Assessment One to support the development of knowledge and understanding.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Outcome		Assessments
1	Demonstrate a broad knowledge and understanding of the creative arts as distinct forms of representation, skill and knowledge.	1, 2
2	Demonstrate understanding of diversity within and across the arts in educational settings.	1, 2
3	Demonstrate understanding of content, concepts and pedagogy across all strands of the creative arts	1, 2

4. RATIONALE FOR THE INCLUSION OF CONTENT AND TEACHING APPROACH

Content will cover education in Visual Arts, Music, Dance and Drama. For each strand, key concepts will be presented, as well as the structure of the syllabus, ways to plan, implement, assess and evaluate learning experiences and key teaching practices for suitable ways to perform/present students' work. The importance of balancing listening/viewing and production will be emphasised.

Visual Arts Concepts: The scope of the art world including artists/curators as art makers, representation of subject matter in artworks, roles of audiences including critics, peers and other consumers of art, interpretation and meaning of visual representations that exist in 2D, 3D and 4D forms from different times and cultures..

Music Concepts: scope of the music world including composers/musicians and conductors as makers of music, compositions and performances as musical works, roles of audiences including listeners, critics, concert attendees, etc., and the representation of musical elements including pitch, duration, structure, tone, colour and dynamics in different forms of musical works in a range of times and cultures.

Dance Concepts: scope of the dance world including choreographers/dancers/performers as makers of dance, performances as dance works, roles of audiences including critics, performance attendees, etc, and the representation of dance elements including action, dynamics, time, space, relationships and structure in different forms of dance works from a range of times and cultures .

Drama Concepts: scope of the drama world including directors/actors/performers as makers of drama, performances as drama works, roles of audiences including critics, performance attendees, etc., and the representation of the elements of drama including collaboration, role play, context, dramatic tension, contrast, time, space, focus and mood in different forms of drama works from a range of times and cultures .

5. TEACHING STRATEGIES

Students will be involved in a variety of teaching-learning situations, including lectures and opportunities for cooperative learning such as workshops and group presentations. These will be conducted in face-to-face and online modes where appropriate and depending on COVID19 arrangements. Practical ways for safe and respectful implementation of classroom teaching strategies will be a priority.

6. COURSE CONTENT AND STRUCTURE

This unit of study involves an intensive 6-week program.

This is an indicative course schedule and reading list. Refer to Moodle for the most current schedule and reading list. Throughout the course, the content may change to be adapted to the students' learning needs and interests.

Submission of assessments

Students are required to follow their lecturer's instructions when submitting their work for assessment. All assessment will be submitted online via Moodle by 5pm. Students are also required to keep all drafts, original data and other evidence of the authenticity of the work for at least one year after examination. If an assessment is mislaid the student is responsible for providing a further copy. Please see the Student Policies and Procedures for information regarding submission, extensions, special consideration, late penalties and hurdle requirements etc. <https://education.arts.unsw.edu.au/students/courses/course-outlines/>

Assessment Details

Pre-assessment: Quiz

Read the Creative Arts K-6 Syllabus and complete the quiz (will be available Moodle) before the beginning of the course.

Assessment 1: Interpreting Indigenous Creative Arts practices using syllabus concepts

You will be provided with examples of Indigenous artworks for each of the artforms. With reference to the Creative Arts K-6 Syllabus explain how each of these creative forms functions as a representation of artistic practice. Additional criteria for the assessment will be provided on Moodle.

Assessment 2: Integrated scope and sequence plan

Design a scope and sequence/unit overview for an integrated unit of work in which students engage in learning in each of the four artforms. Additional criteria for this assessment will be provided on Moodle.

Reflection: Student impact, knowledge extensions or gaps

Describe three ways in which you would assess the impact of your teaching in this KLA on your future students. If you have a specialisation in this KLA (e.g., a major in your undergraduate degree), describe how you could build on your advanced knowledge/skills to make improvements in student achievement in this KLA in your current school. If you do not have a specialisation in this KLA, identify three areas of your disciplinary knowledge /skills that require further development, and what strategies you will use to achieve that. Upload your 500-word response to Moodle before the end of the course.
