

UNSW
SYDNEY

'Critique'

Inaugural Workshop

Tuesday November 26th Morven Brown G6.

09:30 – 10:00	Welcome and introductions
	Welcome address, acknowledgement of country, and introductions A/Prof. Jessica Whyte (HAL), A/Prof. Ben Golder (Law) and Prof. Timothy O'Leary (Head of School, Humanities and Languages.)
10:00 – 11.15	Session 1: Michel Foucault 'What is critique?' Commentators: Ben Golder (Law), Melanie White (SoSS), Nofar Sheffi (Law). Chair: Jessica Whyte
11:15 – 11.45	MORNING TEA
11.45 – 13.00	Session 2: Bruno Latour 'Why has critique run out of steam?' Commentators: Declan Kuch (HAL), Heikki Ikäheimo (HAL) Sophie Adams (HAL) Chair: Daniel McLoughlin (Law)
13.00 – 14.00	LUNCH (catered) G3
14:00 – 15:15	Session 3: Susan Buck Morss 'Hegel in Haiti' and CLR James 'Preface', The Black Jacobins Commentators: Jessica Whyte (HAL), Daniel McLoughlin (Law), Eddie Synod (Indigenous Law Centre). Chair: Ben Golder
15:15 – 15:30	Wrap-up (organisers)
15.30-16.15	Informal group discussion over afternoon tea
16-30-18.00	Drinks (self-funded). The White House.

Convenors: Ben Golder, Heikki Ikäheimo, Daniel McLoughlin, and Jessica Whyte. Co-organized by the School of Humanities and Languages and the Faculty of Law.