EDUCATION FOCUSSED ACADEMIC OPPORTUNITIES

At UNSW Business School, we are transforming Business Education.

UNSW Business School, Australia's leading Business School, is seeking world-class educators to transform our Business Curriculum, to create inclusive student learning communities and make a difference to society.

Are you interested in Indigenous business, developing FinTech capabilities with some of the brightest students in the country, challenging industry and business to do better in environmental, social and governance performance, advancing our tax and business advisory clinic, shaping our learning platforms or online student experience?

You will bring a growth mindset together with industry and professional experience to the role. You will seamlessly deploy educational technologies to deliver superior online, blended and on-campus experiences for our students across all our programs: undergraduate and postgraduate.

UNSW's Education Focussed (EF) roles enable academics to specialise in education and devote themselves to delivering outstanding teaching and pursuing initiatives to transform the educational experience of our students. Those who are appointed into these prestigious roles will lead educational excellence within the Business School's teaching and learning communities.

There are significant career development opportunities as well as a promotion pathway to Professor. We see these roles as critical to further enhance our global reputation by redefining what a leading business school is and does.

The UNSW Business School is currently seeking Education Focussed academics with expertise and leadership potential in online/blended and experiential pedagogies and/or work integrated learning and in the areas of:

- > Business communication
- > FinTech and Finance
- > Indigenous business
- > Business advising and tax practice
- > Risk Management, Actuarial Data Analytics
- > Econometrics and business data science
- > Sustainability, environment, social and governance (ESG), responsible management
- > Data analytics, cybersecurity and technology management
- > International business
- > Leadership, strategy and innovation
- > Business law and regulation
- > Digital marketing and business

We are also open to discussing our needs in other areas of Business education.

There is also the opportunity within these positions to teach at the Australian Graduate School of Management (AGSM). AGSM's personally transforming MBA programs are consistently ranked in the top 100 globally and both our Full-Time MBA and our online MBA (the MBAX), are ranked 1st in Australia.

If you want to play a significant role in creating the next generation of business leaders, change-makers and entrepreneurs, please apply.

UNSW aspires to be the exemplar Australian university and employer of choice for people from diverse backgrounds.

UNSW aims for equal opportunity in the recruitment, development, retention, and advancement of employees, and to ensure that no one is disadvantaged because of their gender, cultural origin, disability, sexual orientation or identity, or Indigenous heritage.

There are up to 22 positions, convertible tenure track, across Lecturer (14 roles), Senior Lecturer (7 roles) and Associate Professor (1) academic levels. The Associate Professor and Senior Lecturer roles are expected to be leaders in educational excellence and innovation. It could be a full-time or fractional appointment.

Attractive compensation packages, including 17% superannuation and leave loading are available to suitably qualified candidates.

Remote working options

We expect the majority of these appointments to be made to candidates who are currently in Australia, because of continuing current travel restrictions and visa processing challenges. We want you in our classrooms with our students, and collaborating with colleagues on great course content development. Overseas candidates are welcome to apply but your ability to be in Sydney and to engage with students will be a criteria for screening and selection.

How to Apply

Please note the recruitment rounds as follows:

1. Please submit your application via the online portal and answer the screening questions in the application form, upload your CV and any other required attachments.
2. If you are successful at the screening stage, you will be required to submit a short video detailing what you think makes a transformational education experience in a Business School.
3. An interview will then be conducted either at UNSW Business School or online.

Applications for this round will close at 11pm on 17 May 2022.

Please note, we will be screening and progressing applications as received so don't delay your application, apply now!
