UNSW Business School

AWARDS CEREMONY

2018

WHERE GREAT MINDS DO BUSINESS
Welcome to the 2018 UNSW Business School Awards Ceremony

Every year we dedicate this evening to celebrating students who have achieved outstanding success academically, as well as those who have demonstrated leadership capacity in the wider community. This is a night for students to shine. We know many of you will go on to remarkable accomplishments, in Australia and worldwide.

We sincerely thank our generous donors and sponsors of scholarships, awards, and prizes. Your support and commitment to education is invaluable and it provides students with access to opportunities that can transform lives. Your engagement shows a commitment to ensuring the business world of tomorrow is as diverse and dynamic as possible.

We would also like to take this opportunity to recognise the Business School’s academic and professional staff for their dedication to continued innovation and excellence. Your knowledge and creative inspiration provides students with the guidance to build brilliant careers that revolutionise the world. Thank you for your passion and commitment.

Let’s celebrate the success of our most talented students at UNSW Business School – where great minds do business.

Professor Chris Styles
Dean
UNSW Business School
GAIL KELLY

Gail is an Australian businesswoman, with a banking career that has spanned 38 years. She served as the Group Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director of two banks – St. George Bank (2002 to 2007) and Westpac (2008 to 2015). In 2008, she led the merger between these two banks and at the time of her retirement, the Westpac Group was the country’s 2nd largest bank and the 12th largest bank in the world by market capitalisation.

Gail currently holds a number of international roles: Senior Global Adviser to UBS, Director of Woolworths Holdings in South Africa, and a Member of each of the Group of Thirty, Bretton Woods Committee, McKinsey Advisory Council, and Optus Advisory Committee. She is also a Director of Australian Philanthropic Services, Patron of the Alliance of Girls’ Schools Australasia, and Ambassador for Women’s Empowerment for CARE Australia. In addition, Gail is the author of ‘Live Lead Learn: My stories of life and leadership’ which was published in 2017.

Gail has strong connections with the University of New South Wales, where she serves as an Adjunct Professor and a Member of the PLuS Alliance Advisory Board. She was awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Business by UNSW in 2014, and in 2017 she established ‘The Gail Kelly Global Leaders Scholarship’ between UNSW and the University of Cape Town, her alma mater in South Africa.

She is married to Allan and they have four children.

JOANNA MA

Joanna is a third-year student currently completing a Combined degree of commerce and law. In her capacity as the co-president of the UNSW Business Society, Joanna serves as an active student voice for almost 10,000 business students at UNSW. Joanna has also recently represented the UNSW Business School at the Heavener International Consulting Competition at the University of Florida and is passionate about providing students with a holistic university experience.

LUKE CLINCH

Luke is an actuarial studies and commerce student currently in his third year. As one of the co-presidents for the UNSW Business Society, Luke also serves as an active student voice for business students and seeks to nurture the next generation of leaders in the corporate world. By representing students on the UNSW Education Committee, Luke endeavours to create positive changes to students in both their academic and personal lives.
